

LIBRARY HELP IS HERE FOR YOU!

CONTACT YOUR LIBRARIAN

Karen Downing (kdown@umich.edu) is a 2009 Ph.D. graduate of the School of Education. She can help you thrive in your program by helping you find the information you need to be successful. She can help you construct searches, identify databases, and any other information need you may have. Schedule a consultation today!

Karen's research interests include mixed race issues in higher education and other inclusion and equity issues.

SYNTHESIZING LITERATURE

Karen has 30+ years of experience synthesizing literature for degree programs, published books, and journal articles. She can help you with assignments that require literature synthesis in easy, concrete ways.

ORGANIZING RESEARCH!

- Learn how to use citation management software to organize your literature and generate bibliographies
- Learn about file naming conventions and versioning of manuscripts and data to make your future self thank your current self!

OTHER HELP...

- Find research and programmatic grants
- Discover places to publish your work
- Learn about copyright and ethical uses of information
- Find validated tests and measures
- Lots more!

kdown@umich.edu

<https://www.lib.umich.edu/users/kdown>